Friends Are Hustling For Their Candidates—Race Open to All Creeds and Nationalities.

SOME OF THOSE WHO ARE ENTERED

The popularity contest announced by the Kentucky Irish American two weeks ago has begun under most favorable auspices. It seems that there are scores of people both married and single who want to take advantage of the offer of a trip to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition with one week's hotel bill and railroad transportation. The first fifty votes cast were in the interest of Mr. and Mrs. Dan McKenna, of 1202 West Oak street.
 Among other married couples who have received votes are Mr. and Mrs. John H.
 Hennessey, of Oldham street; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dolan, 2127 Portland avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick F. McCarthy, Floyd street; Michael Reichert and wife; Thos.
 D. Claire and wife, Joseph P. McGinn and wife and John J. Sullivan, Sr., and wife. Among the single ladies who have received votes are Misses Alice Walsh, Marnie Kelly, Julia Kelly, Mary Cavanaugh, Margaret Norton, Katie Henley and Annie Luckert. The single men who have found friends to cast ballots for them are Rick Quinn, Louis Dugan, James Hand, Ed J. Dalton, Tom Camfield, Jr., Lieut. Tom Fitzgibbon, Charles Reidy, John Crotty, Will McNally, Thos.
 Farlow and Ed Toomey.

Now all of these people, married and single, are popular and have friends all over the city. Besides these a number of others have signified their intention of entering the contest, and among them are residents of Jeffersonville and New Albany. The exact standing of each contestant will not be made public except once each month from now until January 1.

Each copy of the Kentucky Irish American contains one ballot. On this ballot you can vote if you so desire, for a single lady or a single man, or for a man and his wife. Clip your ballots and send them to this office. New subscribers will be allowed fifty votes on the payment of one dollar besides the ballots in each copy of the paper from now until July 1, 1904. Subscribers who are in arrears will be allowed fifty votes for each dollar paid in and will also have the advantage of clipping the ballots each week. The Lindell Hotel, one of the oldest and best known hostels in St.
 Louis, has been chosen as the headquarters for the guests of the Kentucky Irish American during the World's Fair visit.
 This is the greatest and most liberal offer ever made by any weekly newspaper. As stated previously, there are positively no strings on this contest.
 Every person in the city, irrespective of creed or nationality, is eligible to enter this contest and the more contestants the merrier. No person connected directly or indirectly with the Kentucky Irish American will be permitted to enter the contest. The judges will be chosen from among the best known and most highly respected gentlemen of the city.

A cup of hot water possesses the same medicinal qualities attributed to an equal amount of whisky, while lacking the injurious properties. Hot water in abundance is especially recommended in malarial troubles.

RE-ENGAGED.

Kurkamp's Concert Band, with Signor B. Begue, barytone, and Mademoiselle Marie Valdes, will continue to be the attractions at the New Louisville Jockey Club Park next week. Both the band and the grand opera singers have made a favorable impression on the local public.
 Messrs. Matt J. Winn and Charles Price are now in the East looking up other attractions to fill out the summer season.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 3 will hold its regular meeting Monday night.

All those interested in the Irish field day should attend the meeting of the County Board next Friday night.

Division 19 of Providence, R. I., recently celebrated its first anniversary with a banquet, followed by a musical and literary entertainment. More than 300 persons were in attendance.

Division 9 of Central Falls, R. I., recently initiated four members. The State and county officers were in attendance.
 Ladies' Auxiliary to Division 2, Utica, N. Y., recently initiated twelve candidates. Refreshments and a pleasing musical programme followed.

Division 2 of Shieldsville, Minn., will initiate twenty-one new members in the near future. Nearly all the present members and the candidates for initiation are young men and their motto appears to be:
 "In times of health prepare for death."

Milwaukee Hibernians have appointed a committee to wait on the pastors of the English speaking churches with a view to having Irish history used as supplementary reading in the parochial schools.
 The Hibernians will buy the necessary histories in case the pastors are willing to try the plan.

Rev. Father Hyland delivered an instructive and entertaining address upon the semi-monthly meeting of St. Patrick's Division 11, in Syracuse, N. Y. His subject was the influence of the Irish race in America.

County President Peter F. Keenan, of Utica, N. Y., is leaving nothing undone to get Oneida county in the line of parade on Hibernian day, August 8. This will be the first union celebration given by the order in Oneida county.

Boston seems to be a splendid place for Hibernians. At the recent quarterly meeting of the Suffolk County Board seventy divisions in the county were represented by presiding officers. In these seventy divisions there are more than 6,000 members.

Members of the order in Baltimore will celebrate Hibernian day on Thursday, August 6. Genuine Irish harpers and pipers will furnish music. A hurling match will be among the athletic events.
 It is with gratitude that Hibernians recall the special blessing recently sent them by our late Holy Father Leo XIII.
 It was borne from Rome by the Rev.
 Francis J. Van Antwerp, of Detroit.

RECENT DEATHS.

The sad intelligence has been received in this city of the death of Dennis Hines, which occurred at his home in Kil, parish of Drom, County Tipperary, Ireland, on July 10. Mr. Hines was eighty years old and a farmer by occupation. He leaves a son and daughter in Ireland and a son and daughter in Louisville, Thomas Hines, of the Courier-Journal, and Mrs. Michael Barry.

Daniel R. McCarthy, a respected citizen, died at the residence of his niece, Mrs. Thomas McGuire, 3118 Fourth avenue, last Wednesday evening. The funeral took place from the Church of the Holy Name at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. The deceased was a brother of Dennis McCarthy, the well known marble cutter, and had many friends in this city.

Mrs. Sarah Lee O'Connell, a well known lady, died at her home, 126 Bullitt street, on Tuesday evening. The funeral took place from the Cathedral of the Assumption at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. O'Connell was born in the County Galway, Ireland, sixty-eight years ago. She is survived by her husband, Andrew O'Connell, and two children, Dominic O'Connell and Mrs. John F. Gilhooly.

INCURABLES

Now Have a Haven of Refuge With Jeffersonville Sisters of Mercy.

Magnificent Hospital Open to the Worthy Poor Regardless of Creed.

People Have Generously Aided Mother Mary Regina
 and Her Work.

WHAT ONE GOOD WOMAN HAS DONE

The Mercy Hospital is one of the chief points of interest in Jeffersonville. Edward Fitzpatrick, in the Louisville Times of last Saturday, wrote concerning this worthy charity:

"Jeffersonville was without a hospital until a few years ago, when a Sister of Mercy came here with one assistant and established one. Sister Mary Regina has done much for Jeffersonville in the way of sustaining this charity and promises to do more. The old hospital on Spring Hill, adjoining the building in the illustration, has been converted into a hospital for incurables in mind and body and will be accessible to all the people of Southern Indiana. The hospital, while not entirely free, is open to the worthy poor without regard to religious belief.
 The charitably disposed have aided the Sisters of Mercy quite liberally and show their appreciation in many ways. The new hospital is pronounced by physicians to be the most up-to-date institution around the Falls Cities, excepting none.
 Sister Regina, in carrying on the financial work alone, has shown what a woman can do when she tries."

Thus it is that the Sisters of Mercy are doing the work in Jeffersonville that is being done in Louisville by the Sisters of Charity at St. Joseph's Infirmary and at Sts. Mary and Elizabeth's Hospital and by the Franciscan Sisters at St. Anthony's. The Home for Incurables is a new adjunct to the Mercy Hospital. A few years ago the Very Rev. Father Deppen was desirous of establishing a similar institution on this side the river. He has not given up the idea, but thus far the funds for the proposed home have not reached the necessary proportion.

The Mercy Hospital is doing a great work in Indiana and its fame has extended all over the State. It was therefore that the late Hon. Frank Burke chose to come when he had to be operated upon.
 It is a haven of rest to the weary and to the afflicted. May it continue to grow and flourish in the future as it has in the past.

THIRTY-ONE

New Members Initiated at Joint Session of Local Y. M. I.
 Councils.

Members of Satolli, Mackinac and Trinity Councils, Young Men's Institute, met at Bertram Hall on Thursday night and initiated thirty-one new members. The three degrees were conferred by the regular degree team. This was the second exemplification of the new ritual and all present were pleased with the excellent work of the degree team individually and collectively. There will be no further initiations in Louisville until the Grand Council meets here in September.
